"Capturing images of the underwater world has never been easier..."

SEA&SEA THE UNDERWATER IMAGING COMPANY DX-1G

The DX-1G combines the flexibility and instant access of a compact digital camera with the control you'd expect from an SLR, giving camera enthusiasts the opportunity to create a superior photo finish on the fly.

Capturing images of the underwater world has never been easier. Boasting superb optical clarity thanks to a high performance lens utilising low-dispersion glass and a high refractive index which effectively suppresses distortion, colour aberration and light fall-off, the DX-1G ensures your pictures are clear all the way to the edge.
